

*Re-Mapping Sovereignty
Representing Geopolitical Complexity*

May 26-27, 2022

Day 1 ~ Thursday, May 26

12:45-1

Welcome

Salim Mohammed & Kären Wigen

1-2 pm

Panel I: Concepts & Frameworks

Moderator: Kären Wigen

Jordan Branch

Reconceptualizing the State and its Alternatives:
Ideas, infrastructures, representations

Franck Billé

Scattered, Distorted, Voluminous:
On Cartographic Representation in Political Geography

2-2:15

break

2:15 – 3:15

Panel II: Political Mapping in Early Eastern Asia

Moderator: Martin Lewis

Peter Bol

Maps for Failed States

Munkh-Erdene Lhamsuren From People to Territory: Sovereignty Transformed?

3:15 ~ 4:45

break

5:00

Keynote Address

Barbara Mundy

Indigenous Sovereignty Out of Time

Day 2 ~ Friday, May 27

10-11 am                      Panel III:      Shared Landscapes in Early Modern Eurasia
Moderator: Abby Rumsey

Ali Yaycioglu                      Claiming Space, Sharing Place:
Economy of Sovereignty in the Ottoman Empire

Valerie Kivelson                      Sovereignty and Indeterminacy in Siberia in the 17th-early 18th Centuries

11-11:30                      break

11:30-12:30                      Panel IV:      Borders and their Discontents
Moderator: Marie Price

Guntram Herb Erasing the Other: Maps, bordering, and sovereignty

Alec Murphy                      Sovereignty Challenges at Interstate Borders:
Where and How History Matters

12:30-1:30                      break

1:30-3:00                      Panel V:      Visualizing fragmented polities
Moderator: Kären Wigen

Luca Scholz                      Condominium: Mapping Joint Dominion in the Holy Roman Empire

William Rankin Sovereignty and the History of Cartographic Bordering

Martin Lewis                      Why Mapping Sovereignty Matters